DISTRICT OF NEVADA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

TYLER MONSON,

Defendant.

Case No. 3:25-cr-00006-MMD-CLB

ORDER

1. This case is scheduled for trial before the Honorable Miranda M. Du, United States District Judge, in Reno, Nevada, on the trial stack commencing on TUESDAY, the 8th day of APRIL, 2025 at 9:00 A.M. This is a 2-week stack.

2. Calendar call: Counsel for all parties and pro se parties must appear (telephonically if they are out of town attorneys)<sup>1</sup> in Reno Courtroom 5 on MONDAY, MARCH 17, 2025, at 9:00 A.M. for calendar call. Unless a defendant is appearing pro se, defendants will not be required to appear for Calendar Call unless the Court directs otherwise. Counsel or pro se defendants will be excused from Calendar Call if, and prior to the scheduled calendar call, defendant's plea of guilty or nolo contendere has been accepted. Any stipulations to continue the trial or notifications of settlement must be filed five days before the Calendar Call date.

At the Calendar Call, all cases that remain to be tried will be ranked in order of trial with criminal cases taking priority over civil cases. If there is more than one case to be tried, the Court will advise the parties of the order in which the Court intends to try the cases and will give the parties an estimate of the start date of their trial. Thereafter, the Court will not grant a continuance to any party absent a showing of good cause. Unless <sup>1</sup>Counsel must call 1-855-244-8681, at least 5 minutes before the hearing is scheduled to begin and enter access code 23050683701. The use of speaker phones and cell phones are prohibited.

1 the Court directs otherwise, the cases will then be tried one after the other on 24 hours'
2 notice from the Clerk.

3 3. Change of plea hearings: Counsel for the parties are responsible for 4 ensuring that the plea agreement is mailed to the courtroom administrator, Karen Walker
5 (Karen.Walker@nvd.uscourts.gov). Counsel will be contacted with a firm hearing date.

6 4. Status hearings: The Court may conduct a status conference prior to the 7 scheduled Calendar Call. Any party who wishes to request a pretrial status conference 8 must notify the Courtroom Administrator no later than two weeks before Calendar Call. If 9 the Court is satisfied during the status conference that the case is ready for trial, the Court
10 may vacate the Calendar Call.

11 5. Witnesses: Counsel and pro se defendants must immediately subpoena all 12 witnesses for the time and trial date as listed above. Inasmuch as the cases will be tried 13 in a trailing fashion, the subpoenas should contain a special instruction from counsel
14 directing witnesses to contact counsel's office—not the Court—for further instructions
15 prior to appearing for trial. Witnesses are not required to be present at the Calendar Call 16 but must appear as subpoenaed. Unless a case-specific scheduling order or protective 17 order entered by the Court provides otherwise, the government must provide a list of 18 proposed case-in-chief witnesses to the Court and the defense no later than 14 days prior 19 to trial. Witness lists should reflect the anticipated order of witnesses. During trial, counsel
20 and parties appearing pro se must provide to the opposing party a list of their witnesses
21 who will be called the trial next day by 3 p.m. the day before. The parties may agree to 22 provide this list earlier, and the Court may adjust the timeline as needed.

23 6. Exhibits: Counsel and pro se defendants must electronically file their complete 24 exhibit lists—containing all exhibits they intend to use during the trial—seven calendar days 25 before the trial. Counsel and pro se defendants must serve a copy of the same upon the 26 opposing party at the same time. The government must use numerals 1 through 499 to 27 number the exhibits, and defendants must use numerals 500 through 999. The exhibits
28 are to be listed on a form provided by the Clerk's Office, and they may be computer-

1 generated if they conform to the requirements of the form that is provided by the Clerk.<sup>2</sup>
2 The Court uses the Jury Electronic Recording Systems (“JERS”). At least seven calendar
3 days before trial, the parties must provide the courtroom administrator with electronic 4 media (e.g., CD, thumb drive, or hard drive) that contains images of all the exhibits 5 counsel intend to use, in a format specified by the memorandum attached as exhibit 1 to 6 this order. Counsel should retain copies of their exhibits for use by the witness in the 7 courtroom if needed. But for clarity, the parties need not prepare any paper exhibits unless 8 the other party is proceeding pro se, in which case the represented party should make 9 paper copies of all exhibits and make them available to the pro se party such that the 10 exhibits are reasonably accessible to the pro se party a reasonable amount of time before
11 trial. If the parties expect they will use many voluminous exhibits or are otherwise 12 concerned about the presentation of exhibits at trial, they must immediately file a joint 13 motion requesting a status conference with the Court and notify the courtroom 14 administrator when they have done so.

15 7. Marking exhibits: During preparations for trial, counsel for all parties must meet, 16 confer, pre-mark, and exchange all trial exhibits. At least the Friday before trial, counsel
17 must notify Judge Du’s courtroom administrator that the exhibits have been pre-marked.

18 8. Evidence display equipment: Counsel may use the Court’s evidence display
19 equipment or their own display equipment. Counsel must contact the courtroom 20 administrator if they wish to use the evidence display equipment, either to reserve the 21 Court’s equipment and arrange for training to use the Court’s equipment or to arrange a 22 time and date to set up counsel’s equipment prior to trial.

23 9. Jury instructions: Seven calendar days before trial, the parties must file with the 24 Clerk’s Office one document containing the parties’ mutually acceptable jury instructions,

28 tab. If Plaintiffs have more than 500 exhibits, Defendants may begin numbering at 1000 or 2000.

1 disputed jury instructions, and proposed verdict forms.<sup>3</sup> Parties need not include the 2 Court's standard closing, criminal jury instructions in their proposed jury instructions, and 3 can instead assume the Court will give them. The parties' proposed jury instructions must 4 include the supporting authority for each instruction, and for disputed instructions, a brief
5 argument for each instruction as well as the opposing objections to the disputed 6 instructions. The Court has found that footnotes are a good way to do this. For example, 7 each disputed instruction should be followed by two footnotes, one explaining why the 8 proponent of the instruction argues the Court should give it, and the other explaining why
9 the other side argues the Court should not. All proposed instructions must be supported 10 by legal authority, such as the Ninth Circuit Manual of Model Jury Instructions. Any 11 modifications of instructions from statutory authority, the Ninth Circuit Manual of Model
12 Jury Instructions, or any other model instructions, must specifically state the modification 13 made to the original source and the authority and argument supporting the modification.
14 Counsel must provide a copy of the same in Microsoft Word file format to chambers by 15 email to the courtroom administrator at Karen.Walker@nvd.uscourts.gov.

16 10. Suggested voir dire questions: Seven calendar days before trial, counsel or 17 defendants appearing pro se must also file with the Clerk of the Court all suggested voir 18 dire questions to be asked of the jury panel by the Court. Counsel must provide a copy of 19 the same in Microsoft Word format to chambers by email to the courtroom administrator
20 at Karen.Walker@nvd.uscourts.gov.

21 11. Statement of the case: Seven calendar days before trial, counsel or parties 22 appearing pro se must also jointly file with the Clerk of Court a brief joint statement of the 23 case, no longer than one-half page, to be read to prospective jurors at the time of jury
24 selection. Counsel must provide a copy of the same in Microsoft Word format to chambers 25 by email and to the Courtroom Administrator at Karen.Walker@nvd.uscourts.gov. If the

28 <sup>3</sup>Judge Du's standard jury instructions are available at <https://www.nvd.uscourts.gov/court-information/judges/judge-miranda-m-du/>.

1 parties cannot agree on a joint statement, they must file separate statements of the 2 Indictment, indicating which portions should be read to the jury, to satisfy this requirement.

3 12. Government's trial memorandum: The government must submit its original 4 Government's Trial Memorandum under seal seven calendar days before trial and must 5 also provide a copy (marked confidential) to the courtroom administrator. The 6 government's trial Memorandum must be served on counsel for the defendant on the date
7 trial commences and will be unsealed and filed by the Court at that time.

8 13. Trial schedule: Trial will generally begin at 9:00 a.m. and end at 3 or 3:30 p.m.
9 However, parties should plan to be available between 8:30 and 9:00 a.m. and after the 10 end of trial each day of trial to address matters outside the presence of the jury. This 11 standard trial schedule may be modified for good cause; however, requests should be 12 submitted at Calendar Call or before the written trial schedule is issued to jurors. The 13 Court generally takes a morning recess of about fifteen minutes and a later lunch of about 14 thirty minutes. The Court accordingly advises the parties to bring lunch or make lunch 15 arrangements in advance.

16 14. Trial Judge: Although the cases that are on the trial stack are assigned to Judge
17 Du, the cases may proceed to trial before another Nevada district judge or a visiting 18 district judge.

19 15. Sanctions: As provided for under the Local Rules of Practice of this court, the 20 Court will consider the imposition of sanctions against any attorney who: (1) fails to timely 21 file trial briefs, suggested voir dire questions, and proposed jury instructions, whichever 22 is applicable, as prescribed by the Pretrial Order, Order regarding Pretrial Procedure, 23 Scheduling Order, or any order extending the time for such filings; or (2) fails to comply 24 with any provision of this order, including, but not limited to, the failure to appear for 25 calendar call without first having been excused by the Court or the Clerk with the 26 permission of the Court; or (3) fails to timely comply with any other order that schedules 27 deadlines for trial preparation.
